

European Schoolnet is at the crossroads of national and regional education networks, building synergies between communities of teachers, learners, developers, researchers and policy-makers.

It has been involved in a large number of science education and awareness-raising projects for school, including PENCIL , Scientix , Earth & Space Week Competition and Zoom among others.